

Time	Session
10.00	Welcome Catriona Ogilvy - Chair and Founder The Smallest Things
10.15	Introduction David Linden MP - Chair of the All-Party Group for Premature and Sick Babies
10.30	After NICU: A post pandemic report Catriona Ogilvy - Chair and Founder The Smallest Things Salma Ishaque- A Pandemic Parent Perspective
Short break
11.30	Employer with Heart - panel session Sarah Miles - Trustee The Smallest Things Kirsten Genard - Head of PR for Celebrity Cruises, Part of Royal Caribbean Group Drew Gibson - Head of Inclusion, Belonging & Wellbeing, Santander Raffaella Goodby - HPMA HR Director of the Year 2020 and NHS Chief People Officer, Birmingham Women's and Children NHS Trust.
12.30	Prem Aware Award The Smallest Things Prem Aware Award - Introduction Matt Wilkinson - Trustee The Smallest Things Meeting the educational needs of children born prematurely Professor Samantha Johnson - Developmental psychologist and Professor of Child Development in the Department of Health Sciences, University of Leicester. A young person's experience Lisa Spring - Born at 27 weeks, Lisa is a youth champion, supporting young people, their families and schools to improve outcomes. Becoming a Prem Aware school Janet Bostock - Our Lady of Mount Carmel School
13.15	Close Catriona Ogilvy - Chair and Founder The Smallest Things
13.30	Dads Do NICU Break out session facilitated by: Matt Wilkinson - Trustee The Smallest Things Phil Juniper - Employer with Heart, Smallest Things Fundraiser and NICU Dad Carl MacDonald - Author of 'PremDad: A Premature Parenthood and Dad' Blog.